

All Hallows' School

A MORNING WITH HENRY REYNOLDS: REFLECTIONS ON AUSTRALIA'S FRONTIER WARS

A Teacher Professional Development Event Led by Professor Henry Reynolds

Monday, 21 October 2019

Registration: 8:30AM – 8:45AM
Event: 9:00AM - 11:00AM

$15 to secure your seat

All Hallows' School
Claver Theatre
547 Ann Street, Brisbane Q 4000

Parking is available at public parking stations e.g. Cathedral Place, Kings Chinatown. Onsite parking is unavailable.

Professor Reynolds will explore core themes in the study of Australia's Frontier Wars. He will reflect upon his research and introduce new insights from it. Our time with Professor Reynolds will be divided into two halves. In the first half, he will present in lecture format. For the second half, Professor Reynolds has expressed a strong desire to engage teachers in historical conversation. This will be conducted in a prolonged "Q and A" format.

Please note: This is a professional development event for educators, teachers, and pre-service teachers. This invitation is not extended to the wider community or public. Online registrations from email addresses other than those with a .edu suffix will not be accepted. Tickets are non-refundable.

PROFESSOR HENRY REYNOLDS

Renowned historian Professor Henry Reynolds is one of Australia's leading authorities on the history of our Indigenous people. He has published 20 books – including bestsellers The Other Side of the Frontier, The Law of the Land, and This Whispering in Our Hearts – appeared on radio over 100 times, and delivered talks all over the world. Henry has won numerous major literary prizes for his works, which have been widely used as source material and inspiration for poets, film makers, song writers, painters, and beyond. His remarkable work earned him a Federation Medal in 2001, and his career thus far has earned him a host of other accolades. In addition to his many projects, Henry has also acted as a historical consultant for ABC's three-part documentary Frontier and for the BBC's adapted version.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER YOUR INTEREST