Ancient Egyptian Funerary Practices: Building Pyramids and Making Mummies

Presented by Dr Brent Davis

Associate Professor of Archaeology and Ancient Egyptian School of Historical and Philosophical Studies; University of Melbourne

With a background in both archaeology and linguistics, Brent's interests include not only the cultures of the ancient eastern Mediterranean, but their languages and scripts as well. Brent has published numerous articles and chapters on ancient cultures and scripts, as well as on archaeological theory, and he has undertaken more than a decade of archaeological fieldwork in Israel at Tell-es Safi/Gath, the site of a major Philistine city.
