

Grappling with history in the classroom

Saturday 22th February 9.00am to 12.00pm

(Registration open from 8.30am)

JCU, Education Central Building 134 First Floor

History is a disciplined process of inquiry into the past that develops students' curiosity and imagination. Awareness of history is an essential part of being an active citizen, and historical knowledge is fundamental to understanding others and ourselves. In that vein, we ask "What strategies and processes can we use to support students in the process of inquiry? How can different perspectives bring us to new inquiries?"

The morning includes two strands:

- A Strategies strand sharing approaches to supporting student engagement with inquiry, and
- A Perspectives strand presenting unique perspectives relevant to local history inquiry.

For further information see: <https://jcuhistory.wordpress.com/>

Please join us to explore opportunities to engage students with historical inquiry.
