

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF AUSTRALIA

SCHOOL VISITS

The National Archives of Australia tells the compelling story of the connections between Australians and their government, and how these relationships have shaped our nation.

LEARNING PROGRAMS

Reasons to choose the National Archives as your tier 2 PACER destination:

- Curriculum-aligned programs that connect students with pivotal moments in 20th-century Australian history, and explore themes from creativity and identity to immigration, federation and reconciliation.
- Insightful educator-led experiences for the environmentally and socially aware citizens of tomorrow – their place in democracy, individual rights and responsibilities, and how they can enact change.

- It's easy – just book via bookcanberraexcursions.com.au, park the bus and leave the rest to us.
- A unique, enriching and memorable experience for your students.
