

Australian Government
Department of Veterans' Affairs

ANZAC PORTAL

The Department of Veterans' Affairs has a team of qualified historians and education specialists who curate and create content for the Anzac Portal. The website has a wealth of primary and secondary sources to help students investigate modern military history through storytelling.

Sharing our military and service history through the experiences of Australian veterans

AWM 005423

1914-18 World War I

- Explore the origins of the war, enlistment, conscription and Billy Hughes, as well as Australia's military organisation and tactics.
- Learn about cultural diversity, Indigenous service and the roles of women during the war.
- Uncover the Anzac Legend and its relevance today.

See our WW1 resources

1939-45 World War II

- Empathise with the experience of Australians who served at Kokoda or were made prisoners of war (POWs) at the Fall of Singapore.
- Explore the changing roles of women in the forces and at home.

See our WW2 resources

Stories of Service videos

Quickly explain the experience of war through the service of everyday Australians with these short films. They include archival material to support learning. We have WW1 and WW2 films, and more coming soon.

See Stories of Service

Great Debates activities

Explore a topic that's relevant to the curriculum through role-playing. Our classroom debate format shows the differing attitudes of contemporary Australians to historic events. We have WW1 and WW2 topics.

See Great Debates

Free monthly newsletter

We're releasing new content every month. You can join the Anzac Portal newsletter for updates on educational resources, oral histories and more.

Subscribe now

Get in touch

Community Engagement Team
Department of Veterans' Affairs
education@dva.gov.au

anzacportal.dva.gov.au

