

QHTA Media Release

13 October 2023

The Queensland History Teachers' Association was delighted by the number and quality of entries in the QHTA Historical Writing competition this year, with over 350 entries in 17 categories, Years 7 to 12. Thirty four schools entered and included State schools, Independent schools, and Catholic schools. Schools with winners for 2023 included:

- Albany Creek State High School
- Anglican Church Grammar School
- Brisbane Grammar School
- Brisbane Girls Grammar School
- Cannon Hill Anglican College
- Craigslea State High School
- Mount Alvernia College
- Mount Gravatt State High School
- Noosa District State High School
- Rivermount College
- Runcorn State High School
- Smithfield State High School
- St Hilda's School
- St Laurence's College
- St Margaret's Anglican Girls School
- St Patrick's College Mackay
- Sunshine Coast Grammar School
- Somerville House
- Stuartholme School
- The Gap State High School

QHTA commends and thanks the many teachers and their students for their participation in this competition. The entries reflected the very rich learning occurring in History classrooms across the state and confirms the enthusiasm and expertise of Queensland History teachers who provide wonderful opportunities for their students.

The winners of each category are posted on the QHTA website, www.qhta.com.au

e: qhta@qhta.com.au
w: www.qhta.com.au
a: PO Box 1029, New Farm QLD 4005
p: 0418 764 574

