

2025 Queensland History Week: Guess Who Activity

Guess Who #1

- I was born in Sydney in 1963.
- I was raised by a single mother in public housing.
- I have served as the leader of the Australian Labor Party.
- In 2022, I became the 31st Prime Minister of Australia.
- I am known for my passion for public transport and social justice.
- I am Anthony Albanese

Guess Who #2

- I was a Gurindji elder and Aboriginal land rights activist.
- In 1966, I led a walk-off from Wave Hill cattle station, demanding better pay and land rights.
- My protest lasted 8 years and led to one of the first successful Aboriginal land claims.
- In 1975, I famously received a symbolic handful of soil from Prime Minister Gough Whitlam.
- My legacy is celebrated in the song From Little Things Big Things Grow.
- I am Vincent Lingiari

Guess Who # 3

- I was born in 1861 in Western Australia.
- I worked to improve education and welfare, especially for women and children.
- In 1921, I became the first woman elected to an Australian parliament.
- My image is on the Australian $50 note.
- I helped establish children's courts and women's refuges.
- I am Edith Cowan

